We are confident that the National Democracy is non-intervention by Congress, with the reserved rights of the States or the People.

Resolved, That the touch-stone of Democracy is non-intervention by Congress, with the reserved rights of the States or the People.

Resolved, That we heartily invite all those who are opposed to the election of Abraham Lincoln, to unite with us, and prevent the Government falling into the hands of the corrupt and sectional Republican party, thereby preserving inviolate the Constitution and the Meeting of the Democratic State the most tyranical and intolerant spirit. Such preserving inviolate the Constitution and the Meeting of the Democratic State a disposition is always a sure index of a weak cause, and the involuntary outpourings of that conceitedness which is invariably the forerunner of defeat. Let the Democracy stand firm, and again sectionalism will be crushed, and the rebels of disaffection and disappointment put to flight. Once more to the breach, Na-
